

Martha Eastman Lentz

Chairman, Board of Directors

Harmony Institute

Martha Eastman Lentz founded the Harmony Institute in 1996 and serves as chairman of its board of directors. Located in the town of Harmony, Fl., Harmony Institute provides blueprints for healthier living as a natural result of the interactions of animals, people and the environment.

Mrs. Lentz was born in Chicago, was raised in Winnetka, Ill., and attended the Kansas City Art Institute in Missouri. She has been involved professionally in marketing for the hospitality industry and for trade associations. Mrs. Lentz served on the Orlando Humane Society/SPCA of Central Florida board of directors until 1991, when she was named executive director of that organization.

She serves as president of the Harmony Neighborhood School Board and as vice chairman of the Harmony Community Development District.
